As showing the singular connection of words, it is stated that the first remark of Mercur after the confirmation of Mr. Clark was, " Dem me, John !"

AMUSING .- The editor of the Republican complaining that he has been abused. Who could abuse him? What slanderous term could be applied to him that term in connection with his name.

SUBSIDING .- Palemon John, late Assessor, and editor of the Columbia County Republican, devotes less than a column this week to the abuse of Mr. Clark. What a relief to his readers! We congratulate them. The falsehoods he quietly ignores.

An it affords us pleasure to say that h comprehensive views, his thoroughne and exactness, are such as to comman the admiration and confidence of the people. His ability, integrity, and p triotism none can doubt. Known to l an able financier, an accomplished p Htical economist, and a thoroughly he est man, his position in the Treasury Department not only creates implicit confidence, but causes the people to feel that so long as he remains at the helm the ship of State will be steered so as to avoid the gales of revulsion and the rocks of bankruptey. Let Congress and the country sustain and support him .-Columbia County Republican, April 5, HALLUCINATION .- Our attention has been directed recently to a most singular case of hallucination. A young man, respectable in his former occupation, fancies that his vocation is to edit a newspaper. His friends, kindly as they suppose, conclude to indulge him in this whim, and he becomes co-editor and co-proprietor of the Democrat and Star. Good people who knew him had thought and hoped the joke might end here. But not so. The public are presently astounded to learn that this simple fellow claims to have been educated in the same school with King David, and what at first might have been regarded as hallucination, at present, it is feared, gives decided evidence of permanent insanity. See! P. John pats him on the back, and he gushes over with delight. He meets gentlemen on the street and imagines they do not look him in the face, and this he makes the occasion for a learned dissertation on that "biped" called the wolf. This is followed by an insinuation that somebody once wanted to hang him. Smebody once wanted to hang him. This idea of course has existence only in a diseased imagination. The proof is clear. Nobody ever heard of him until now, and not even Doctor John, Radical as he is, would consent to see the simple soul hung. The Doctor is a Qhaker, and hanging is a serious business, especially among Quakers, Next his insanity takes this turn. He fancies that some imaginary enemies hostiness, especially among Quakers, Next his insanity takes this turn. He fancies that some imaginary enemies are to be subjected to great mortification by his refusal to recognize them in Social life. This is the very "cestacy of madness." This is no joke, and the case existence of his refusal to recognize them in Social life. This is the very "cestacy of madness." This is no joke, and the case existence of his friends. There is, however, complete that if the worst comes to the worst the provision made by our laws for the provision of the friends. The provise of the provision of the friends are the provision of the frien This idea of course has existence only in a diseased imagination. The proof is clear. Nobody ever heard of John, Radical as he is, would consent to see the simulation of the second consent to see the simulation.

American Hay Knife and Fork manufactured by SLIFFER, WALLS, SHRINER & Cs., of Lewisburg, Pn., and the Rundel's Patent Hay Hook.
The American Fork lifted more hay in one straught than the Rundel in three. We are suitsfied it will take as much hay into the now as two good horses can draw, We also saw it cutting hay, and think it cannot be beat as a hey knife, and cheerfully recommend it as the best hay fork
